Summary: To celebrate Statistics Day on 29th June of 2021

Department of Mathematics and Department of Statistics jointly organised this Webinar using Zoom Cloud Meeting Platform. The lecture was attended by around 200 participants including undergraduate, postgraduate students and the faculty members of various colleges. The esteemed speakers delivered the valuable and interesting topic on "Role of Statistics in Management Science" and "Statistics and measurement of Indian Economy". Question-answer sessions were also made in a lucid way to clear the ambiguity of the narrated areas asked by the participants.

Prof Champa Chakroborty, Joint Convenor of the webinar extended a really hearty vote of thanks to the speakers. Feedback form had been submitted by almost all the participants and participation certificates had been provided to all the participants in due time.
