Summary: The lecture was attended by 64 participants including undergraduate students and Faculty of department of journalism and Mass Communication, member of Surendranath College. The honorable speakers had delivered lectures on various angles of news. They clearly understand what news sources are, how to meet press conferences on investigative journalism. The program emphasizes reporting and writing techniques as well as fact checking and compiling storytelling techniques. After the lecture we had arranged a questionnaire segment". All students participated in this segment. The speaker was given the vote of thanks by all the participants who had submitted the feedback form and received the participation certificate in due time. The webinar lecture on the topic of "news reporting", is a very important topic to every student of journalism and Mass Communication. Our students enjoyed this seminar which was to enhance their practical knowledge.
