Summary : We arranged a State Level Webinar on “The Way To Be a Moral Person: Some Ethical Concepts Of Early Confucianism”on July 20,2021. Actually it was a series of lectures. The speaker Siddique Alam Beg taught us about chinese philosophy mainly the portion of ethics.It was such an interesting topic and it was attracted all the audiences,both teachers and students,in such a way that we requested him to give time for us for another two lectures.In the first day,i.e, on July 20,2021 the programme was inaugurated by our T.C.S Dr. Bibhas Chandra Mondal since our principal Sir could not be present on that day.Then our one of the faculty smt Smrita Mukherjee inaugurated our eminent speaker.The lecture was attended by around 90 participants including our college students and students of other institutions,faculty members of our colleges and of other colleges and universities.The esteemed speaker delivered his speech on a very relevant and lesser known topic in a very lucid manner.He introduced different concepts of chinese ethics.This session enlightened the audience,both teachers and students.The lectured was followed by a long and eloquent question-answer session.

The session was ended by our departmental head Dr. Aparajita Kundu by giving a vote of thanks.
