Summary : Primer plays an important role among the beginners for the elementary education on language. After the establishment of Fort William College in Kolkata many writers of the 19th century had written Bengali Primers. In this webinar Prof Dr. Asis Khastagir an eminent scholar and a great researcher on Bengali Primer vividly discussed on Bengali primers of 19th century giving special emphasis on ‘Shishusiksha’ by Madanmohan Tarkalankar and ‘Barnaparichay’ by Iswarchandra Vidyasagar. He also discussed the role of the School Book Society for the publication of Bengali Primer. As primers are written for the beginners the speaker mentioned that the language of the same must be very lucid. A comparative study on the language of different primers was also discussed giving many examples from the texts. Primers written especially for the girls were also mentioned in the webinar and special features of such primers were also highlighted.
