Summary:

Human civilization sometimes gets threatened by natural pandemics when humans find no other way but to surrender to nature. Covid 19 pandemic 2020 will dismantle the entire world for a long period of time. The entire world went through a long process of lockdown – a newly invented concept followed by a process of un-lockdown – a process of gradually getting acquainted with a new normal lifestyle. In the webinar the eminent veteran Prof Madhumita Sen made an attempt to focus on how this lockdown affected the pillar of social relation through concept of social distancing and how to maintain and restore social bond within this boundary of New-normal. The webinar greatly influenced the mental state of the students to adjust to the new normal situation.
